A photograph of a beautiful outdoor garden space. In the foreground, there's a wooden deck with a wicker sofa and ottoman. The sofa has light blue cushions and a patterned throw blanket. The ottoman is also wicker and has a woven basket on it. To the left, there's a potted plant with purple flowers. In the background, there are many trees and greenery, creating a serene atmosphere. Overlaid on the image is the text "Start Your Landscape Design Career" in a large, white, sans-serif font.

Start Your Landscape Design Career

The landscape design industry is growing quickly, and now is the perfect time to dive in! If you're a creative thinker who enjoys working with plants, hardscaping, color, texture, and natural materials, then a career in landscape design could be the right path for you.

QC Design School's online professional courses allow you to study from home entirely at your own pace. You'll decide when you want to study without any strict deadlines or stressful exams. With QC, you can gain a professional certification without interrupting your daily routine.

Studying with QC is an enjoyable and rewarding choice. You'll be assigned a personal tutor, an accomplished design professional, who will provide expert feedback on your work and help refine your skills. Together with QC's team of dedicated student advisors, your tutor will work to inspire, motivate and encourage you every step of the way.

Career Opportunities

Start a Business or Freelance

Launching your own landscape design business or working as a freelance designer offers exceptional flexibility and creative freedom. You can build your brand, choose the projects that inspire you, and set your own rates while helping clients transform their outdoor spaces.

Work for an Established Landscape Company

Joining an established landscape design firm or landscaping company provides valuable hands-on experience, mentorship, and opportunities for professional growth. It's an excellent way to build a strong foundation in the industry while working on a variety of residential and commercial projects.

Specialize in a Niche Area

Developing expertise in a specialized area such as residential landscape design, planting design, hardscape planning, or outdoor living spaces can help you stand out. Clients often seek designers with focused knowledge and a distinctive style.

Expand Your Design Services

Landscape design is a valuable addition to many creative careers. Whether you already work in interior design, home staging, decorating, real estate, or a related field, offering landscape design services can help you attract more clients, provide complete property makeovers, and increase your earning potential.

How Online Learning Works

In order to truly learn design online, you need more than quality course materials. You also need a support system that helps you through problems, and a tutor who will challenge you to always deliver your best results. Learning online in a hands-on manner has never been easier thanks to QC's 5-step system.

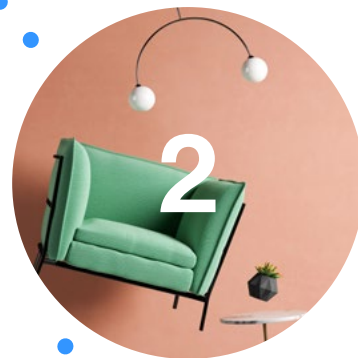

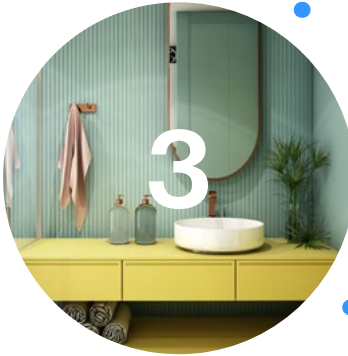

Enroll Online & Receive Your Course Materials

When you enroll, you'll receive access to your online student center where you can view all your course materials. These include digital texts, video lessons, assignments and more!

Work Your Way Through the Online Course

Each course is split into learning units, which build on each other as you progress through the course. Get stuck? No worries, get support from your classmates in the Virtual Community or reach out to your Teaching Assistant!

Submit Your Assignments

When you've completed all assignments for a unit, you'll submit your work for grading via the online student center. Your personal tutor will review and grade each assignment, and then provide you with feedback and advice.

Review Your Tutor's Feedback

Once your tutor has graded your unit, you will receive their detailed audio feedback on what you did well, what you could improve, and advice for the next unit. Listen carefully and keep this feedback in mind as you start the coursework on your next unit, and watch your work progress as you complete the course!

Graduate & Receive Your Certificate

Once you've completed the course, you'll graduate from QC Design School and receive your certificate and professional designation. Step into the world of home design confident that you have the skills and knowledge to be successful.
